RASHTRIYA SANSKRIT VIDYAPEETHA, TIRUPATI
DIRECTORATE OF DISTANCE EDUCATION

I. ABOUT THE VIDYAPEETHA

The Vidyapeetha was established at Tirupati(A.P) in 1961 by the Govt. of India on the recommendations of the Central Sanskrit Commission as an autonomous body under the name of “Kendriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, Tirupati society”. Dr. S.Radhakrishnan, the then Vice President of India laid the foundation stone of the Vidyapeetha on 4th January 1962. The basic objectives of setting up of the Vidyapeetha is to impart and improve the Sanskrit Pedagogy to accelerate the place of higher Sanskrit learning and to combine the traditional Sanskrit education with modern scientific research.

Later, Kendriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, Tirupati came under the administrative control of Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, an autonomous body under the Ministry of Education in April 1971. In the year 1987, the Vidyapeetha was declared as a Deemed University by the Government of India considering its progress in the past 25 years. It was formally inaugurated by the then President of India Sri R. Venkataraman on 26th of August 1989. The Vidyapeetha was given the status of “Centre of Potential for excellence in the subject of Traditional Shastras” in the year 2002-03 by the UGC in recognition of its contribution in the preservation & propagation of Sastras and Sanskrit Language and duely accredited A+ grade by the NAAC in the year 2003.

The students from different parts of India are studying various Sastras as well as modern subjects like Computer Science, Maths, History etc. in this University. The medium of instruction for the traditional subjects is Sanskrit only, which is an unique feature.

The University has had the unique fortune of having a succession of eminent Chancellors and Vice-Chancellors to guide its destiny. The present Chancellor Dr. J. B. Patanaiik, Hon'ble

Governor of Assam, former chief Minister of Orissa.

The present Vice-Chancellor, Prof. H.K.Sathapathy are renowned academicians and able administrators. Under their leadership the University is witnessing a spectacular growth in all spheres of activities.
